

Affidavit of Support Form

Per U.S. immigration regulations, all international applicants are required to demonstrate proof of their ability to pay for their education and living expenses while in the United States. To issue an I-20, UCSC Silicon Valley Extension requires a financial statement demonstrating proof of funding.

Instructions: This form should be completed only if you are receiving financial sponsorship from a family member, relative, or private individual. This form is not for students who are paying for their studies with their personal funds or for students being sponsored by an employer, government, or other organization. Please refer to our How to Apply page for separate instructions.

In addition to completing this Affidavit of Support form, you must submit Proof of Funding documentation from your sponsor. Please refer to our How to Apply page for full list of acceptable documentation.

Financial Document Requirements:

- For nine-month certificate programs, a minimum of $30,000 is required.
- For one-quarter short programs, a minimum of $15,000 is required.
- If being accompanied by dependents, add $4,000 for a spouse and $3,000 for each child or dependent.
- All financial documents must be in English.
- All financial documents must be dated within the past six months of when you submit your application.
- All financial documents must show the amount in dollars (USD).
